Patty Kueneke has over 20 years of commercial real estate experience, specializing in retail properties. She has extensive experience in tenant representation, site location and acquisition work in all aspects of real estate leasing and management, with particular emphasis in retail and investment portfolios. Patty has completed build-to-suit transactions with national credit tenants throughout 23 states as well as Canada.

As Vice President and Senior Retail Leasing Broker, Patty currently handles the majority of leasing for Solon Gershman's retail management portfolio. In addition, Patty's experience and track record have created invaluable relationships with landlords throughout the St. Louis area.

As the former Midwest Zone Real Estate Manager for Blockbuster Entertainment Corporation, she was responsible for new store development in numerous cities throughout the Midwest as well as disposition of surplus sites.

Her experience also includes serving as Retail Development Manager at Amoco Oil Company in the St. Louis and Kansas City markets. While an independent broker, she also implemented the sale of more than 50 surplus properties for Amoco. Previously, Patty served as Director of Commercial Property Management for Paragon Group for 8 years and Director of Real Estate and Construction for the Angelica Corporation.
